Authentication of Articles of Incorporation

—OF—

The Association of Pioneer Women of California.

STATE OF CALIFORNIA,

DEPARTMENT OF STATE.

I, C. F. Curry, Secretary of State of the State of California, do hereby certify that I have carefully compared the annexed copy of Articles of Incorporation of THE ASSOCIATION OF PIONEER WOMEN OF CALIFORNIA with the certified copy of the original now on file in my office, and that the same is a correct transcript therefrom, and of the whole thereof.

Also that this authentication is in due form and by the proper officer.

Witness my hand and the Great Seal of State, at office in Sacramento, California, the 29th day of October, A. D. 1906.

C. F. CURRY,
Secretary of State.

[GREAT SEAL OF STATE.]

J. HOESCH,
Deputy.

Articles of Incorporation

of

The Association of Pioneer Women of California

Know all men by these presents:

That we, the undersigned, all of whom are citizens and residents of California, have this day voluntarily associated ourselves together for the purpose of forming a corporation under the laws of the State of California, and we hereby certify that the name of said corporation shall be THE ASSOCIATION OF PIONEER WOMEN OF CALIFORNIA. That the purposes for which it is formed are as follows:

To collect and preserve the history and reminiscences of pioneer women of California.

To cultivate social intercourse.

To foster the industries and development of California, particularly mining, agriculture, horticulture, floriculture, dairying and poultry raising.

To sympathize with and encourage the workers in these lines and to co-operate with those who are working for the preservation of the forest and song birds.

To familiarize the members with the laws of the State bearing on the above-mentioned interests.

To encourage the pioneer women of California and their female descendants to become members of this organization.

To acquire and hold, rent, lease, improve or otherwise have and dispose of real, personal and mixed property for the purpose and benefit of this Society.

To grant permits for and to organize branch or associate Societies, under the permission, by the authority, and with the assistance of this Corporation.

And generally to do all things incident to the objects of this Association and all other acts that may be legally done under and by virtue of the laws of the State of California.

That the term for which this Corporation is to exist is fifty years from and after the date of its incorporation.

That the place where the principal business of said Corporation is to be transacted is at the City and County of San Francisco, State of California.

That the number of Directors of said Corporation shall be five.

That in accordance with the rules and regulations of THE ASSOCIATION OF PIONEER WOMEN OF CALIFORNIA, an election was held at a regular meeting of said Association, held at the City and County of San Francisco, on the seventh day of March, 1901, at which meeting there was a majority of all the members present, who took part and voted at said election, and the following named members received the majority of the votes and were elected Directors of said Association and as Directors of said Association for the first year:

Historical

From the first report of THE ASSOCIATION OF PIONEER WOMEN OF CALIFORNIA:

Mrs. Tirza J. Wear Martin, President.

Pursuant to a call from Mrs. Martin through the daily papers of San Francisco, August 12, 1900, seven ladies met at Pioneer Hall, Fourth Street, San Francisco, on the 28th day of August, and signified their intention of organizing an Association of Pioneer Women of California, which they did on that date. These ladies were Mrs. Tirza J. Wear Martin, Mrs. Ann Fassett Germain, Mrs. Margaret F. McCormick, Mrs. A. B. Wharff Huntington, Mrs. E. P. Thorndyke, Mrs. Mary A. McGiveney, Mrs. Sarah A. Whidden, who each contributed one dollar to the treasury. The meeting was called to order and the following officers were elected: Mrs. Martin, President; Mrs. Germain, Secretary; Mrs. Thorndyke, Treasurer.

On September 1, 1900, the organization was completed. Mrs. Germain, on account of illness, resigned as Secretary and Mrs. Angeline G. Gardner was appointed Secretary pro tem. When new business was in order Mrs. Louise S. Chase was duly elected Secretary.

On September 10 and 11, 1900, receptions were held at Red Men's Hall, Post Street, to celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of the admission of California as a State. Among the many guests were the Historical Committee of the Pioneers of California; delegates from the various parlors of Native Sons and Daughters, and Mrs. Mary Davis Bucknall, the lady who represented California in the first Fourth of July celebration after the admission of California into the Union as a State.

A Constitution and By-Laws were prepared and accepted in 1900 and amended in 1901 and 1903. These, and all records in the keeping of the Secretary, also the Articles of Incorporation, obtained March 7, 1901, were destroyed in the fire of April 18, 1906. A copy of the Articles of Incorporation was obtained from the State, October 29, 1906. The Constitution and By-Laws, with changes inserted as read, were adopted February 7, 1908.

THE ASSOCIATION OF PIONEER WOMEN OF CALIFORNIA now stands ready to welcome to its ranks all eligible pioneer women and the female descendants of pioneer parents who arrived in California prior to and including the thirty-first day of December, 1853.

Preamble

Conscious of the dignity of the part which Providence assigns to women in determining the character of any State or people, and believing that by publicly uniting forces we can more successfully accomplish the high duties devolving upon us by reason of that natural endowment, we organize to that end, under the following Constitution:

Constitution

ARTICLE I.

NAME.

This organization shall be known as "The Association of Pioneer Women of California."

ARTICLE II.

OBJECTS.

The objects of this Association shall be as follows:

To collect and preserve the history and reminiscences of Pioneer Women.

To cultivate social intercourse.

To foster the industries and development of California.

To sympathize with and encourage workers, and to co-operate with those who are working for the preservation of the forests and song-birds.

To familiarize the members with the laws of the State bearing on the above-mentioned interests.

And to work for any other interest which may appeal to The Association of Pioneer Women.

ARTICLE III.

QUALIFICATIONS.

All moral white women who were residents of California prior to and including the thirty-first day of December, 1853, and all moral white women who are descendants of pioneer women and pioneer men, residents of California prior to and including the thirty-first day of December, 1853, shall be eligible to membership.

ARTICLE IV.

OFFICERS.

The officers of The Association shall consist of a President, two Vice-Presidents, Recording Secretary, Financial Secretary, Treasurer, Marshal, Board of Directors, to consist of the President, the Recording Secretary and three members; Board of Trustees, to consist of five members. Said officers to be elected by ballot.

ARTICLE V.

COMMITTEES.

All committees to be appointed by the President:

1. Historical. 2. Investigating. 3. Visiting. 4. Funeral. 5. Entertainment. 6. Auditing.

And all special committees.

ARTICLE VI.

PRESIDENTS.

No President can serve two terms, unless otherwise requested by two-thirds of the members present at the monthly meeting.

ARTICLE VII.

DUTIES OF PRESIDENT AND VICE-PRESIDENT.

Section 1. The President shall preside at all meetings of The Association and shall determine the order of business. She shall strictly enforce the provisions of the Constitution and the Standing Rules and Orders, and shall see that all officers and committees perform their respective duties.

Sec. 2. She shall neither offer nor second any resolution, nor take part in any debate, while in the chair.

Sec. 3. She may state points of law, and hold discussion to the point. If exception is taken to her rulings an appeal may be taken to The Association. When appeal has been made she shall state her rulings, and the exception thereto, and proceed to take vote, first asking, "Shall the Chair be sustained?" A majority voting shall decide the question without debate.

Sec. 4. She shall inspect and announce the result of all ballotings or other votings of The Association. Any Vice-President, in the absence of the President, shall exercise the same power and authority as the President.

ARTICLE VIII.

DUTIES OF RECORDING SECRETARY.

The Secretary shall keep correct minutes of the proceedings of each and every meeting of The Association.

She shall record its By-Laws, Rules and Ordinances in a book to be kept solely for that purpose.

She shall preserve a correct register of the names of the members and shall be responsible for the safe-keeping of all books and papers pertaining to her office.

She shall certify all accounts and countersign all orders on the Treasurer when signed by the President.

She shall make reports of her work at such times as may be required by the Board of Directors.

She shall whenever directed by the President notify the members of all meetings.

She shall perform the duties of Corresponding Secretary and render such other reasonable services as the President may require to carry on properly the work of The Association.

ARTICLE IX.

SEAL.

The seal of The Association of Pioneer Women of California, Incorporated March 9th, 1901, shall be applied to all proper documents going from the office of this Association.

ARTICLE X.

FINANCIAL SECRETARY.

She shall collect all moneys due The Association and pay same to the Treasurer at close of each meeting, with a written report, and take a receipt for same, and such report shall appear in full on the minutes of The Association. She shall be responsible for all books and papers pertaining to her office.

She shall report to The Association the names of members six months in arrears on the First Friday in March and the First Friday in September of each year.

She shall render any reasonable service required by the President in the conduct of the business of The Association.

ARTICLE XI.

DUTIES OF TREASURER.

The Treasurer shall keep a book in which she shall record all receipts and disbursements, and shall report the same annually, or at such periods as the Board of Directors may require; she shall pay no moneys without an order signed by the President and countersigned by the Secretary.

She shall give such bonds for the faithful performance of her duties as may be ordered by the Board of Directors. At the expiration of her term of office she shall deliver all books, papers, moneys, vouchers and other property belonging to The Association in her possession, into the hands of her successor.

ARTICLE XII.

DUTIES OF MARSHAL.

The Marshal shall have charge of the door, seat the guests, introduce all strangers to the President, conduct and introduce all new members to the Financial Secretary, see that they pay the fee prescribed by the By-Laws and get a receipt for the same, and afterward conduct them to the Secretary to sign the Constitution, and finally to the President to be welcomed.

ARTICLE XIII.

DUTIES AND POWERS OF DIRECTORS.

Section 1. The Board of Directors shall consist of the President and Secretary of The Association and three other members elected at an annual election. They shall meet at least once a month, and a majority must be present for the transaction of business. Any vacancy which may occur in the Board shall be filled by the Board.

Sec. 2. They shall have a general supervision of all business, subject to the ratification of The Association, and shall have power to grant charters for the establishment of Auxiliary Associations. All Auxiliary Associations shall be under the control of the Board of Directors of The Association of Pioneer Women of California.

Five or more Pioneer women or the female descendants of Pioneers, outside of San Francisco and Alameda counties, may, with the consent of the Board of Directors, organize an Auxiliary Association with power to receive applications and elect applicants to membership in said Auxiliary Association. On receipt of Charter the applicants have power to elect officers and Board of Directors, collect dues, and make their own laws, provided such laws do not conflict with the laws and objects of The Association of Pioneer Women of California, which are set forth in Article II and in Article III of the Constitution.

Sec. 3. Upon satisfactory proof of violation of the Constitution and By-Laws of The Association of Pioneer Women of California, the Board of Directors shall revoke Charter granted Auxiliary Association, and all history and reminiscences collected by said Auxiliary shall be turned over to The Association of Pioneer Women of California.

The Board of Directors shall make monthly reports in writing of all business transacted. The Board must elect a President of the Board from one of the five members of the Board and a Secretary from The Association.

Sec. 4. The Board of Directors shall determine the compensation to be paid to the Secretaries. The Treasurer's bonds shall be placed in the possession of the President for safekeeping.

Sec. 5. Any member who shall neglect for six months to pay dues may be stricken from the roll of membership by a majority vote of the Board of Directors.

REMISSION OF DUES.

Sec. 6. When the Board of Directors shall be satisfied that any member of The Association is unable, for the time being, to pay the monthly dues, it shall have the power to remit such dues.

ARTICLE XIV.

DUTIES OF TRUSTEES.

They shall have charge of all property and special funds belonging to The Association, and must be responsible for the safekeeping of everything entrusted to them by The Association. As the Special Fund accumulates they are empowered to invest and manage the same, only with the approval and consent of The Association. They shall be ex-officio Librarians of The Association. They shall receive and preserve all books, pamphlets, records, magazines, etc., which may have been purchased for, donated or loaned to The Association, and shall keep a record of such donors. They shall give such bonds for the faithful performance of their duties as may be ordered by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE XV.

HISTORICAL COMMITTEE.

The duty of this committee shall be to collect all the history available of Pioneer days and the personal experiences and history of each member of this Association. Blanks for this purpose may be obtained from the committee. When these blanks are filled out and returned to the Committee, they will write the names and dates of arrival in a History book kept for that purpose; and longer articles will be indexed and filed for a book to be published later. The Historical Committee shall also have charge of the Scrap Book.

ARTICLE XVI.

ELECTIONS.

Section 1. All elections of officers of this Association shall be by ballot and when there is only one candidate for any office the Secretary shall cast the vote of The Association upon order of the President without motion. The ballots shall be saved by the Secretary until officers are qualified and take their seats.

Sec. 2. All members who pay dues and are in good standing on the books are entitled to vote at elections of officers or upon any question.

Sec. 3. The election of officers to be held on the First Friday in October of each year.

The fiscal year to begin on the First Friday in November of each year.

The officers shall serve until their successors are duly elected and qualified.

Sec. 4. Outgoing officers shall have all books in their possession properly posted and balanced, with report of Auditors in due and proper form, and shall deliver to the incoming officers when qualified all books, records, money, papers, and any and all property of whatever kind in their possession belonging to The Association of Pioneer Women of California.

ARTICLE XVII.

MEETINGS.

Stated Meetings for the transaction of business shall be held on the First Friday of each month at 2 o'clock, members to be notified by postals from Recording Secretary stating place of meeting.

Special Meetings shall be called at the written request of five members in good standing.

ARTICLE XVIII.

VISITORS.

Visitors shall not be admitted to the business meetings of The Association before 3 o'clock.

ARTICLE XIX.

DUTIES OF MEMBERS.

It shall be the duty of every member of The Association to use all laudable efforts to collect and procure such records, relics, minerals, curiosities, etc., connected with the early history of this State, as may be useful and beneficial to The Association, and to forward the same, together with any information that may be of interest to The Association.

ARTICLE XX.

ANNUAL CELEBRATION.

The anniversary of The Association is the 28th of August, but for the convenience of the members, the Annual Celebration shall be held on the last Saturday of August.

ARTICLE XXI.

APPLICATION FOR MEMBERSHIP.

Section 1. Each applicant for membership shall be recommended by one member of The Association, upon a blank application prepared for that purpose. All applications for membership must be signed by the applicant and one member of The Association as voucher for the applicant's eligibility. Applicants shall be referred to an investigating committee of three appointed by the President.

Sec. 2. Any one becoming a member fraudulently may, on proof of same, be expelled by a majority vote of The Association at a stated meeting.

Sec. 3. If any Pioneer Woman living in the country and unable to come to the city, desires to apply for membership by letter, the Secretary shall be empowered to write to her voucher for recommendation and, if the same be satisfactory, shall sign the roll for said applicant.

ARTICLE XXII.

FLORAL PIECE.

Upon the passing away of a member of The Association, the Funeral Committee shall send, in the name of The Association, a floral piece made of yellow flowers, if possible, that being The Association color, not to exceed in cost the sum of two dollars. The Memorial Services shall be held on the first Friday in May of each year.

ARTICLE XXIII.

QUORUM.

Nine members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

ARTICLE XXIV.

WITHDRAWAL.

Any member in good standing in this Association who may wish to withdraw from the same shall, by filing a request in writing with the Secretary and paying all demands to date of application, be entitled to a letter signed by the President and countersigned by the Secretary and bearing the Seal of The Association.

ARTICLE XXV.

DISCIPLINE.

Upon the failure of any officer to perform the duties of her office, the Board of Directors after giving said officer thirty days' notice, may declare the office vacant.

ARTICLE XXVI.

MISCONDUCT.

Any member who shall furnish matter for publication derogatory to a member, or prejudicial to the good name of The Association, or who shall slander a member, or whose actions are calculated to injure a member, shall be tried by the Board of Directors, and upon proof of the same, shall be dropped from The Association, provided, that the member shall have the privilege of referring her case to The Association at a regular meeting for final action. Charges must be presented in writing by any member in good standing.

ARTICLE XXVII.

AMENDMENTS OF CONSTITUTION.

This Constitution shall not be altered or amended except by a two-thirds vote of members voting at a stated meeting. All such alterations and amendments shall be proposed in writing at a stated meeting of The Association at least four weeks prior to action thereon.

The parliamentary procedure of The Association shall be governed by Robert's Rules of Order.

By-Laws

CANDIDATES TO QUALIFY.

Section 1. Each member on applying for membership in this Association shall pay into its Treasury the sum of one dollar to the credit of the General Fund and shall sign the Constitution, with her name in full, maiden and married, together with her place of birth, residence, and the month and year of her arrival (or that of her parents) within the limits of this State.

If any person residing in the City of San Francisco shall for one month after her acceptance, or if residing in any other part of the State shall for six months after her acceptance, neglect to sign the Constitution, she shall be considered as having declined to become a member and her admission fee shall be forfeited to The Association.

Sec. 2. The dues of The Association shall be twenty-five cents per month.

AUDITING COMMITTEE.

Sec. 3. The President shall appoint an Auditing Committee, who shall examine all accounts against The Association; and no bill or account shall be paid unless the same shall have been endorsed "approved," and signed by the committee, nor until the warrant on the Treasurer in payment of the same shall have been signed by the President and countersigned by the Secretary.

DELINQUENCIES.

Sec. 4. Any member who shall neglect for six months to pay dues may be stricken from the roll of membership by a majority vote of the Board of Directors.

Any member thus stricken from the roll of membership shall cease to be a member of The Association and shall not again become a member except by acceptance and the paying into its Treasury the sum of one dollar to the credit of the General Fund in the manner prescribed by the Constitution and By-Laws for the acceptance of New Members.

ACCEPTANCE OF RETURNING MEMBERS.

Sec. 5. The Association can at any regular meeting vote as to the acceptance of a returning member who must have a two-thirds vote of those present to be admitted again as a member.

MISCONDUCT.

Sec. 6. No member shall take from The Association room any newspaper, pamphlet, book, or any other property belonging to The Association.

AMENDMENTS.

Sec. 7. No By-Laws shall be enacted, nor any amendment made thereto, unless notice of the same shall have been given at a regular monthly meeting, and action thereon shall be taken at the next monthly meeting after the introduction of the same.

DECORUM.

Sec. 8. Each member when speaking shall address the presiding officer, and when called to order by her shall immediately take her seat; but she may appeal from such order, and a majority of the members present may reverse it.

In debate no member shall be personal in her remarks.

MOTION IN WRITING.

Sec. 9. All motions shall be in writing, if so required by the Chair.

HONORARY MEMBERS.

Sec. 10. Application for honorary membership shall be on blanks same as for membership; voucher to state the character of service rendered by person she proposes for honorary membership.
